We agree with David on this.

1, 3, and 4 are generally fine, although on 3 and 4 I'd be reluctant to completely abandon prior agreements and timelines – and that process would need to move reasonably quickly. We can't agree to 2, nor do I think that's an appropriate basis on which to refuse to consent to the motions as it doesn't bear on the standard applicable to those motions and the relief sought. I also think that's really an issue for the Judge to decide, and you're free to seek that from the Court of course.

Thanks,
DC

All:

Defendants' response to Plaintiffs' motions to amend/supplement their complaints to add claims related to the new voting system is due Monday. Since we were not provided a copy of the Coalition Plaintiffs' supplemental complaint until it was filed last Friday, we could not consider consenting to the new complaints without seeing it first. Now that we have both proposed complaints, State Defendants and Fulton County are agreeable to consenting to these motions in order to increase efficiency on all sides if Plaintiffs will agree to the following:

1. No waiver of our defenses or ability to file motions to dismiss on the merits of the new claims.
2. Stay of all discovery until the Court issues a ruling on our motions to dismiss.
3. Hold a new 26(f) conference to create a new preliminary report and discovery plan; and
4. Meet and confer as to new deadlines for the case going forward.

Please let us know if Plaintiffs are willing to agree to these conditions or if you would like to discuss further.

In light of the Court granting Fulton County's Motion for Extension this morning, would all parties consent to a similar extension for State Defendants to respond to the motions for fees? Please let us know as soon as possible as we plan to file this morning.

Subject: Deadlines for Response and Reply on Motions for Leave to Amend/Supplement - Curling et al. v. Raffensperger et al., Case No. 1-17-CV2989-AT

Mr. Martin,

The Court's August 29, 2019 Order (attached) indicates that Defendants' Consolidated Responses to Plaintiffs' Motions for Leave to Amend is due September 15, 2019 and Plaintiffs' Replies in Support of Their Motions are due September 22, 2019. September 15th and 22nd are both Sundays. We had been operating under the assumption that our response and Plaintiffs replies were both due on the following Mondays, the 16th and 23rd respectively, and only just realized the deadlines fell on the weekend.

Would you mind clarifying the Court's order as to when the respective filings are due? We just wanted to check to confirm whether the stated dates were correct.

Thank you very much.
